Sanders Thaler Viola & Katz, LLP, a regional CPA firm based in Jericho, New York, with an additional office in New York City, has announced that Scott Sanders, CPA, PFS, CFP, CFS, managing partner, has been named president-elect of the Nassau County Chapter of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA).

Sanders works with closely held businesses and high-net-worth individuals, specializing in tax planning, trust and estate planning, and compliance and surrogate accounting for the Court. His industry experience is in the fields of manufacturing, public relations, real estate, restaurants, and jewelry. He also advises his clients on strategic planning services, such as investment analysis, professional money managed accounts, cash flow analysis, insurance, estate and gift tax planning, the formation of family limited partnerships, the creation of private foundations, charitable tax planning, and establishing retirement accounts.

From 1981 to 2005, Sanders handled tax and accounting matters for clients based in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. In 1995, he merged his private practice to form the firm of Lazar Sanders LLP, which merged in 2006 to form Lazar Sanders Thaler & Associates, LLP. In 2010, he formed Sanders Thaler & Associates LLP, now known as Sanders Thaler Viola & Katz, LLP.

"I am proud to be named president-elect of this wonderful organization and to have been associated with NYSSCPA for the past eight years," Sanders said. "In my new role, I will continue to uphold the organization's mission and provide public awareness of the practice of accountancy."
